Tartar Teen Talk

By BERTA ROGAN, FR 5-6993

"What's Happening?", the annual Boys' and Girls' League Variety Show, will be held Feb. 15 and 16. Emcees will be Steve Smith, Jimmy Weyant, and Claudia Smith.

Director of this year's show is Eddie Shaw and the producer is Ollie Lesson. Admission prices will be 50 cents for students and 75 cents for adults. Tickets will be available at the door.

Last weekend, a group of students went to the mountains planning on a grand time skiing, tobogganing, etc. Despite the fact that it rained constantly, everybody had a grand time.

Those who went were Sharon Blakesly, Steve Wingard, Barbara Balow, Lenny Ehlers, Barbara Merola, Billy Montgomery, Sharon Clark, Jim Weyant, Marilyn Moss, John Emery, Barbara Hester, Tom Quaggin, Sandy Chapman, Mike Walker, Ginger Phillips, Ollie Lesson, Berta Rogan, David Skinner, Don Kelly, Steve Smith, and Carl Hoybe.

Elections were held on the Tartar campus Wednesday, but as yet the victors haven't been announced.

The results will be revealed tomorrow night at the Election Dance. The dance will be a sock hop in the girls' gym and tickets will not be sold at the door so be sure to get your ticket at school today or tomorrow.

Lots of Tartars have been heard asking Micky Babbit how he's living now that Lowell Ranum has jilted him, for a girl, no less.

The Varsity Club is holding its initiation this week but, as I hear it, they are all getting a free haircut out of it. I hope none of them panicked.

The Tartar basketball team plays its fourth league basketball game tomorrow night at Leuzinger High School. The team is really doing well this year so let's try to have everybody find a ride and go to the game. Rooters' buses will be available for students who wish to ride them.

The North Hi Breeze

By LEILA SANTOR

Other class officers: senior class—Dave Gazay, vice president; John Bridges, treasurer; Steve Whelan, Boys' League Rep. Junior class—Amy Akashi, vice president; Sherry Anders, secretary; Mary Ogawa, treasurer; Ada Garnica, Girls' League representative.

Sophomore class—Pat Reynolds, vice president; Linda Wallace, secretary; Joann Appling, treasurer; George Morgan, Boys' League representative; Margaret Owen, Girls' League representative. Freshman class—Nancy Coleman, vice president; Linda Harris, secretary; Alex Cohen, treasurer; Charles Rutter, Boys' League representative; Judi Motoyasu, Girls' League representative.

June Nakawatase and Ken Knott will again head their respective leagues.

Girls' League officers: Carol Lesar, vice president; Nancy Gibson, recording secretary; Sonja Pesola, corresponding secretary; Julia Pace, treasurer; Sharyn Rich, Big Sister.

Boys' League officers: Bruce Stinger, vice president; Chuck Richardson, secretary; Allan Andrews, treasurer.

Old and new officers are being congratulated at a noon sock hop in the gym tomorrow.

It was really nice seeing so many Saxons at the Culver City game last Friday night. If everyone continues to attend the away as well as the home games, rooters' buses will be provided for all away games.

Bob Wyatt was chosen first-chair trumpet in the all-California Orchestra. North High is really proud of this senior. Rehearsals for both the Variety Show and the Senior Play as the time for their showing draws near. "As Time Goes By," the variety show will be presented in two performances—Jan. 24 and 26. "Dear Ruth" is to make its debut Feb. 27 and continue Feb. 28 and March 2.

Let's continue to keep the campus clean. Yesterday began the sophomore's week. Last week the juniors did a real fine job, helping the competition along with some cute badges.

Worthington Named To Succeed Roach

Appointment of Leslie B. Worthington of Chicago as president of Columbia-Geneva Steel Division of United States Steel Corp., with headquarters in San Francisco, was announced yesterday by Clifford F. Hood, president of U. S. Steel. In his new post, Worthington succeeds the late

Alden G. Roach. For the last 11 years, Worthington has been president of United States Steel Supply Division, whose main offices are in Chicago. The division operates 18 warehouses, including those located at Los Angeles, San Francisco, and Portland, Ore.

Joined U. S. S. in 1923 Following graduation from the University of Illinois with a B.S. degree in 1923, he began his career with U. S. Steel as a sales apprentice at the South Chicago Works of Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corp. He became assistant manager of sales in the Chicago district of Carnegie-Illinois in 1933 and, two years later, was appointed manager of the St. Paul district sales office. Subsequently, he was attached to the Detroit sales office for five years before being transferred to Pittsburgh, where he was in charge of sales of bar, strip, and semi-finished materials for Carnegie-Illinois.

In Supply Division In 1942, Worthington was elected vice president of

United States Steel Supply Division, becoming its president in 1946. Worthington is a director of the University of Illinois Foundation and vice president of the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce. He is a member of the executive committee of the American Steel Warehouse Association and of the American Iron and Steel Institute. He also is a member of the Chicago Club, Chicago Athletic Club, and Westmoreland (Ill.) Country Club, and the Duquesne Club in Pittsburgh.
